BURRITO

Anna’s Taqueria

Everyone has their own burrito peccadillos. Some people demand a tortilla that’s warmed just right. Others require perfectly melted cheese. And there are the finicky types who worry that the fillings need to be evenly spread. Anna’s offerings meet all of these standards, but where they truly shine is in flavor. They use only the freshest vegetables and meats and offer far more than grilled chicken and beans: Tongue, spit-shaved meat and the tenderest carnitas keep the pickiest burrito addicts full and happy.
